localUM LIBRARY DEAN TO SPEAK
AT ST. PATRICK WORKSHOP

MISSOULA--

Earle C. Thompson, dean of the University of Montana Library Service, will discuss library activities in the Missoula area Thursday (Jan. 7) during a medical library workshop at St. Patrick Hospital, Missoula.

The one-day workshop, entitled Hospital-Based Library Service for Health Professionals, is co-sponsored by the Pacific Northwest Regional Health Science Library (PNRHSL), Seattle, Wash., and the Montana Division of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education's Mountain States Regional Medical Program (MSRMP).

Thursday's program, which follows a similar workshop held in Great Falls on Tuesday (Jan. 5), begins with registration at 8:30 a.m.

Robert Wilson, field librarian for the PNRHSL in Seattle, will conduct the workshop with the assistance of MSRMP staff. Wilson will discuss the goals and techniques of hospital library management.

Dr. Leonard W. Brewer, a Missoula physician and MSRMP staff coordinator for library service, will present welcoming remarks at 9 a.m. He also will discuss MSRMP library activities.

Mrs. Martha Hassell, medical librarian at the Ft. Harrison Veterans' Facility near Helena, will discuss the screening of library requests at the medical facility.
